

Dr. Michael Neville.

Dr. Michael Neville received his medical degree at the Royal College of Surgeons, Dublin, Ireland in 1973. He interned at Princess Margaret Hospital, in the Bahamas and worked for a year in the emergency room. Dr. Neville then trained as a psychiatrist in Manchester, England where he received a Diploma in Psychological Medicine and the Membership of the Royal College of Psychiatrists.

He returned to the Bahamas in 1979 and has worked as a Consultant Psychiatrist at Sandilands Rehabilitation and at Doctor's Hospital.

Dr. Neville has a special interest in Forensic psychiatry and has worked at Fox Hill Prison and given expert testimony to the courts. He has conducted research and has published numerous papers and has presented his work at many conferences. He served on the countries Prison commission and on the last Crime Council.

He has been awarded the M.B.E. by the Queen and the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice by the Pope.

Dr. Neville is married to Sandra and they have three children and four grandchildren.